RECHLIN/LAERZ Airfield

(18.2.58)

1. (a) There is no rail spur leading into the airfield at RECHLIN/LAERZ. POL deliveries to the airfield arrive by rail along the line LAERZ-RECHLIN. Such rail transports are pushed into a siding which is located at a point almost opposite the Western end of the EAST-WEST runway. The POL is then offloaded into tanker lorries which transport it to the airfield.
(b) During the month of Jan 1958 and up to 10 Feb 58, 5 x 2-axled rail tankers have delivered POL to the airfield weekly.
2. At MR 495085, there are 6 small wooden huts each 4 x 8 m. On each of the roofs of two of these buildings there is a radar array as shewn in Sketch No 1 at Appendix "A".
3. At MR 496117, there is a radar array. A rough sketch of this array is given as Sketch No 2 at Appendix "A". The array stands approx 100 m NORTH-WEST of a similar array.
